

APT AUSTRALASIA CHAPTER LONGFORD ACADEMY at Woolmers and Brickendon Estates, Tasmania

SPRING WORKSHOP IN HERITAGE CONSERVATION Woolmers Estate, Saturday 2 September 2017 9.30am - 4.30pm

Trades and conservation practitioners, property owners, specifiers and project managers are invited to attend a one-day practical workshop on APT-recommended systems of repairing traditional buildings

Outline of Workshop

Maintenance and repair of masonry, carpentry, joinery and applied finishes, including

- Assessing condition of building structures and building fabric
- Evaluating traditional and contemporary conservation options
- Repairing woodwork sustainably
- Using lime mortars, plasters, coatings and finishes sustainably
- Conserving walls, ceilings, floors and joinery.

Presentations by leading specialists and practitioners – Gary Waller (G&C Waller – wood carpentry and joinery), David Young, Ray Wiltshire and Brian Maxwell (lime mortars and plasters), Michael Bremer-Trainor (wood graining and decorative finishes) and Donald Ellsmore (traditional coatings).

Attendance $200 ($150 APT Member) includes morning tea and lunch
To register, contact the APT Convenor by email: apt.australasia.chapter@gmail.com

Sponsored by TBCITB

To be considered for funding assistance, TBC industry participants should apply directly to the TBCIT Board at least three working days prior to commencement of the workshop. Approval must be obtained from TBCITB before the workshop.